A cheery Smile Is As Good As A Mile

On The Road to

VICTORY

WORDS AND MUSIC BY THE ORCHID OF THE SCREEN

ANITA STEWART

Personal Direction of L.B. MAYER

Dedicated to The Boys Who Are Giving their All
For Freedom

Arr. by DAN. J. SULLIVAN

Composer of
"Your as Welcome As The Flowers in May"
"My Irish Song of Songs."

John Temple Jr. Del.

Copyright 1918 W.H. Leahy

A Cheery Smile Is As Good As A Mile, On The Road To Victory

Arranged by Dan J. Sullivan
Composer of "You're As Welcome As The Flowers in May" and "My Irish Song of Songs"

Words and Music by ANITA STEUART

Tempo di Marcia

VOICE

PIANO

Our While

sol-diers are proud that they've been al-lowed To fight that the world might be free Let bro-thers and sons are chas-ing the Huns And risk-ing their lives with-out fear We us o-ver here do our bit to cheer Them on to a great vic-to-ry In must let them know, by ac-tions we'll show That we're back of them o-ver here If lib-er-ty's fight for right a-gainst might Each one must re-joice in his share When things go co-hoots you're down in the boots Just think what our boys face the while Till

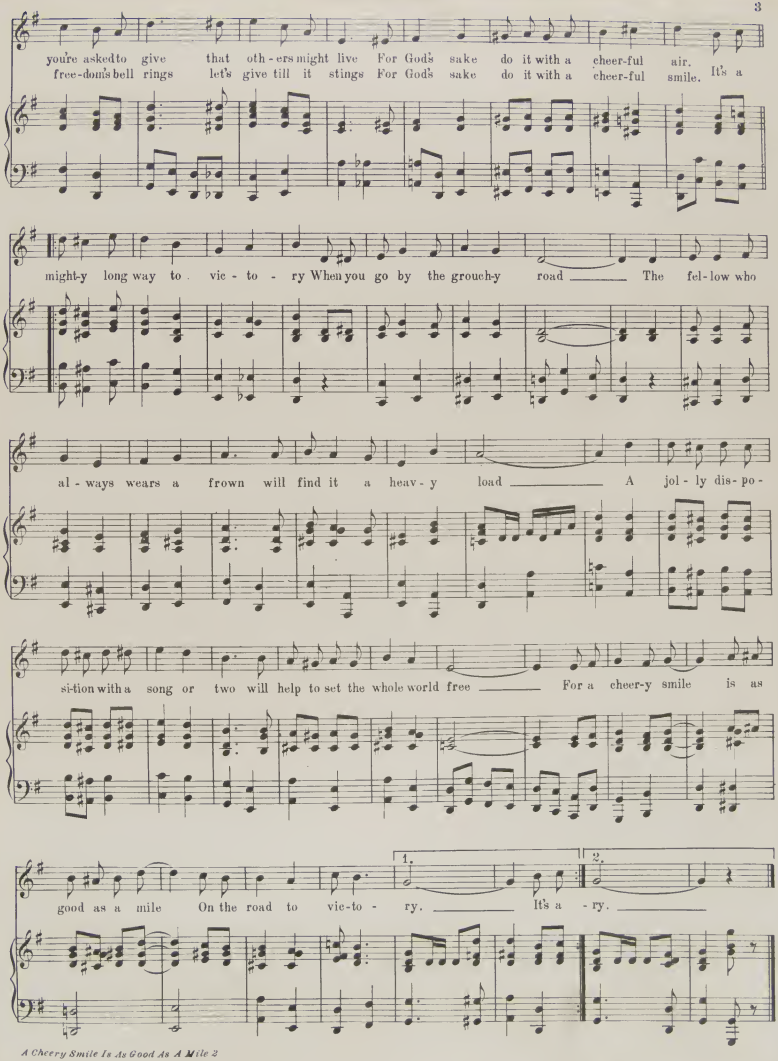
Copyright, 1918, by W. H. Leahy



you're asked to give that oth - ers might live For God's sake do it with a cheer-ful air. free-dom's bell rings let's give till it stings For God's sake do it with a cheer-ful smile. It's a might-y long way to vic - to - ry When you go by the grouch-y road The fel-low who al - ways wears a frown will find it a heav - y load A jol - ly dis-po - si-tion with a song or two will help to set the whole world free For a cheer-y smile is as good as a mile On the road to vic-to - ry. It's a - ry.
1.
2.